

LAZY LANGUAGE CLUB · BELGRADE

Bring a language tasting to your space.

A warm, low-pressure language event for cafés & art spaces — guests taste languages over a drink, with headphones and good company.

Not a class — a tasting.

An evening where guests sample several languages: hear a native in the headphones, repeat, then chat with a partner — and swap. Guided by Nelli, who's run a language club for 2.5 years (hundreds of evenings).

1

Listen

Scan a QR, a native reads the line into your headphones.

2

Shadow

Repeat out loud — catch the sound, no grammar drills.

3

Speak

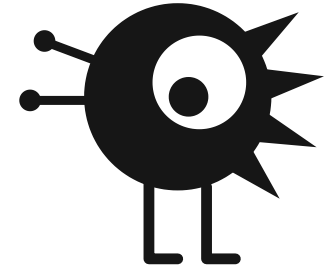

Run the dialogue with a partner, then swap partners.

02 · WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

You host. We run it.

- A cozy corner for up to 10 people
- One weekend slot (Sat evening or Sun brunch)
- A shout-out to your community (one post / story)

We bring the method, the printed sheets, the native audio, and the energy.

A cultural event that pays its way.

- Fills quiet hours with a recurring, on-brand event
- Draws an engaged, paying crowd of expats + locals — drinks & food sales
- Fresh, photogenic content for your socials
- Positions your space as a real community hub

04 · THE BIGGER PICTURE

A small bridge between expats & locals.

People who live side by side in Belgrade, actually talking — in several languages, over a drink. Let's run one pilot evening together and see the room light up.

let's taste some languages together →

